

I Woke Up At Midnight And Saw..... By Sophie Pye, J2

I Woke Up At Midnight And Saw..... a little girl standing in my bedroom. Her name was Piper. She told me not to be afraid and she told me that she had a secret. Piper had a magic power. She can turn people into anything she wants. One day, for example, she turned all her family into horses, but not her dog. She kept him as a dog. Her dog was her best friend, until now.....

Piper told me a story about the day that she saw a robber. She turned him into a tiny fairy door. Piper was too big to go through the door so she used her magic powers to make it bigger. She opened the door and went through it and inside was a land full of fairys. She met a little fairy called Jessica. Jessica said your not allowed here. But Piper said I have magic powers. Then Jessica brought Piper to the King and Queen. They said yes you can stay but only if you protect us. Ok said Piper. But can I take a photo of where I am. Ok said the Queen, but don't send it to your friends. Ok said Piper.

That day the King Queen had a party for Piper. When Piper got to the party she realised she missed her family. That night she went back through the fairy door and brought her sister, her mum, dad and dog back with her.

In the morning she told the queen that she brought her family here.

The queen said ok, they can stay, but only if you pass a test. First climb a wall, jump over a block, run to the fairy tree, high five me, then do it two more times. Ok said the family.

Are you ready? Yes. Are you steady? Yes. Then go. Ok! And they are off.

The winner is Lady (Piper's sister)!

So the family said goodbye and left the King and Queen. When they all went home, Piper went to bed with Lady. But Lady can not sleep. She woke Piper up and Piper said stop Lady, don't wake me up.

But there are giants here. Everyone said ahhhhhh. The queen came through the fairy door and told Piper to use her magic power to stop the giants. Ok said Piper.

Piper used her magic powers on the giants and they got smaller and smaller until there was nothing there. Then the giants were gone forever. Everyone was happy and they lived happily ever after.

Piper loved telling me this story about one of her adventures. She asked if I would like to go on an adventure with her. I said yes. Piper told me she would visit me again at midnight tomorrow and we would have our adventure. Piper then disappeared from my room and I rolled over in my bed and fell back asleep.

The End.
